

Eموke Hartyáni

Pet Transport Specialist

Owner, BudapestVet Cargo

Eموke is Hungarian and started her career in the airline and air cargo industry. She has worked for Malev (Hungary), Gulf Air (Bahrain) and for Lufthansa Cargo (Hungary and Albania).

Eموke transitioned her career to work with the transportation of live animals in 2006 after attending the ATA Conference in Amsterdam.

In the past 10+ years she has completed some very complex projects, such as the transportation of 13 wolves from Canada to Siberia for the film “La Loop”.

She joined forces with her father, Lajos Suranyi (retired Chief of Veterinary Officer, Budapest) to start their own company, BudapestVet Cargo in 2014.

As a small business owner Eموke has a strong focus on Internet Marketing and Social Media. She finds this extremely fast moving environment fascinating, where trends can change from one month to the next.

Eموke is a college graduate in Business Administration and holds secondary diplomas in Marketing, Advertising and Public Relations.
