

Dr. Sørine Quaade Møller

Head of Border Inspection Post, Copenhagen/DVM/special consultant,
The Danish Veterinary and Food Administration

Dr. Sørine Quaade Møller graduated from the Royal Veterinary and Agricultural University in Copenhagen, where she obtained her degree in Veterinary Medicine.

Previous work experience: Medical Secretary; ER, Pathological Institute etc. Official Veterinarian; different slaughterhouses. DVM; assistant, small animals. Official Veterinarian at central level; National Expert (FNAO), participated in working group meetings at the EU-Commission, import conditions and implementing EU-legislation, illegal import, campaigns, training and education, increased focus on import, guides for importers and improvement of websites etc.

Volunteer Experience: Volunteer and board member; shelter for women and their children.

After several years working at central level mainly with import conditions, training and implementing EU-legislation, she changed her career, now working at local level as the head of the Border Inspections Post in Copenhagen, and has the control focus towards live animals, food of animal origin, feed and animal by-products.