

Gabriella Tamási

Technical Standards Executive
Network Safety, Security & Conformance
British Airways/IAG Cargo

Gabriella Tamasi joined British Airways in 2011 and has been appointed as the Global Product Manager for Specialist Products in March 2012. Since then Gabriella held the position of IAGC Product Standards Compliance Manager and most recently she joined the Network Safety& Conformance team as a Technical Standards Executive.

Gabriella has been an active member of the IATA Live Animal and Perishables Board since 2013 and is a regular contributor to the LAR she is an IATA accredited external trainer on the Live Animal subject

Gabriella works closely with the Heathrow Animal Reception Centre as well as the UK Border Force CITES team and DEFRA the UK government department for policy and regulations on the environment, food and rural affairs and is a great champion of collaborative working with regulators.

Gabriella actively supported the United for Wildlife declaration to which IAG is a signatory and she continues supporting the Transport Taskforce.

She represented the IAG group at the Hanoi Conference on Illegal Wildlife Trade and is a regular presenter at Interpol events.

Gabriella also services as a distinguished member of the ATA Board of Directors.