SCAM and FRAUD ALERT

Scams and Fraud ALERT

Around the world, consumers interested in purchasing companion pets have been targeted by criminals through online schemes. For your safety and security, we urge all customers to remain vigilant against con artists who claim to be associated with our association.

ATA reminds consumers to not engage/purchase with unknown companies/individuals selling animals online. Though the ATA logo is being utilized illegally, ATA is a membership based association which consists of members who transport animals. DO NOT release any of your personal information.

ATA leaders ask if members see/hear anything, please report directly to the ATA office
